

Adriana Perez

December 17, 1982 - January 31, 2014

Adriana Perez passed away early Friday morning, surrounded by her family. She was born December 17, 1982 to Armando and Elena Perez, in Turlock, California. Adriana attended Turlock High School, graduated Turlock Adult School, and gained some college education. She worked as a billing agent for a medical firm for nine years.

Unfortunately, Adriana was a victim of cervical cancer, but as her family put it, “cancer picked the wrong diva.” She was a strong soldier who truly battled her disease and continued to love life to the very end.

Adriana was a doting and loving mother who enjoyed craft projects, cooking and baking, shopping, and being with her family.

Adriana is preceded in death by her grandparents, Manuel and Maria Saucedo, and Jose and Consuelo Perez. She is survived by her parents, Armando and Elena Perez, her children, Destiny Zavala, Isaiah Zavala, Elias Sano, and Michael Sano, her siblings, Christina Casillas, Mary Ellen Peralta, Amanda Perez, and Armando Perez, six nieces and nephews, and many other beloved family and friends.

A vigil service will be held Thursday, February 6, at Turlock Funeral Home, 425 N. Soderquist Rd., in Turlock, with the recitation of the rosary beginning at 6:00 p.m. The funeral mass will follow the next day, Friday, February 7, at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, 1200 Lyons Ave., also in Turlock, at 12:00 p.m. with interment in Turlock Memorial Park, 575 N. Soderquist Rd.

“ My condolences

The Bible promises us that soon, our Creator will 'swallow up death forever, and wipe the tears from all faces' Isaiah 25:8.

What a wonderful future hope that is.

There is much Bible based comfort, including answers to questions such as "what is the purpose of life?" "What happens when we die?" "why does God allow suffering?", to be found on the website www.jw.org
