

Albert Y. Choochage

March 1, 1943 - July 14, 2018

Albert Choochage passed away on Saturday, July 14, 2018 in Turlock, California. He was 75 years old.

Albert was born on March 1, 1943 in Urmi, Iran to Benyamin Choochage and Abrisam Manafi. Raised in Iran, he attended college for a short time and then started working as a veterinarian. After immigrating to the United States, he moved to Los Angeles and started working as a Journalist.

Albert married the love of his life, Rozik Badalbo on February 15, 1968 in Tehran, Iran. They celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary this year.

In his spare time, Albert enjoyed playing the guitar and the piano. He found his passion in writing and loved poetry and art. Albert was a man of faith and reveled in reading his Bible daily. A family man and humanitarian, Albert leaves behind a legacy for his family to look up to.

Albert was predeceased by his father, Benyamin Choochage; his mother, Abrisem Manafi; his sister, Narges Choochage and his daughter, Odet Korkis. He is survived by his wife, Rozik Badalbo; his daughters, Yvette Choochage and Eidit Choochage; his sister, Romina Azizian; his grandsons, Benjiman Korkis and Christopher Pinkha; as well as his sons-in-law, Osie Dinkha and Abram Kinfu.

A private ceremony will be held for his family.

Cemetery Details

Turlock Memorial Park

575 N. Soderquist Rd.
Turlock, CA 95380
(209) 632-9111
<http://turlockmemorialpark.com>

Tribute Wall

“ Albert Y. Choochage

January 28, 2023 at 09:01 AM