In Loving Memory of Alfred Oushan

March 21, 1960 – June 19, 2025

Alfred Oushan, beloved father, brother, and friend—and the life of every room he entered—passed away on June 19, 2025, at the age of 65.

Born in Tehran, Iran, on March 21, 1960, Alfred was raised in Yonkers, New York, where he built a life rooted in love, laughter, faith, and deep devotion to family. Known for his vibrant personality and generous spirit, Alfred had a gift for bringing people together. He was, above all, a proud father to his children, Jonathan and Christina.

Alfred was a devoted Assyrian who held his heritage close to his heart. He deeply loved the church and found great strength and purpose in his faith. His commitment to his culture and community was evident in the way he lived his life—with pride, humility, and service.

He is survived by his loving daughter Christina Lada (Oushan) and her husband Edward Lada, his sister Violet Lazari and brother-in-law Boris Lazari, his former wife Linda Godje (Oushan), his aunts Zina, Nina, and Lila Oushan, his nephew Jason Lazari and his wife Danielle Lazari, his nephew Steven Lazari, and many cherished cousins. He was predeceased by his beloved son

Jonathan Oushan, his mother Sarah Oushan, and his father Nemroud Oushana.

A celebration of Alfred's life will be held in both New Britain, Connecticut, and Yonkers, New York. Family and friends will gather to honor his memory, share stories, and celebrate the incredible joy he brought to everyone he knew.

Alfred's laughter, warmth, unwavering love for his family, and steadfast faith will never be forgotten. His legacy lives on in the hearts of all who had the privilege of knowing him.
