“ I can't imagine you are no more dear big sister. The pain and sorrow in my heart is unbearable. No more picking you at the airport and seeing you off and leave only after texting me you've checked in. Your love, kindness and your sweet stories will always remain in our hearts. May you go well Sister, till we meet again.

“ Dear Alice,

It breaks my heart to say goodbye so soon. You were not just my sister, but also my friend, my confidant, and a light in our family. Your strength, your kindness, and your unwavering love will forever remain etched in my heart.

Though cancer took you from us, it never touched your spirit. You fought with courage and grace, inspiring everyone around you. I find comfort in knowing that you are now at peace, free from pain, and resting in God's eternal embrace.

I will always love you, Alice. Your memory will live on in everything I do. Until we meet again, rest well, my dear sister.

“ Aunty Alice and I knew each other for a very short time but the length of time does not really matter. The memories we made in the short time is what counts. The time we shared during her visits to Kenya were worth it. She will be remembered as a friendly and warm person. Joyful but meek with a unique sense of humor and wit. I pray that her loved ones find solace even in this difficult time. Saying goodbye is not forever. Somewhere down the road our paths will cross in God's perfect time at the resurrection. Fare thee well Aunty. Until we meet again.
