

Amy Williams Gohring

Amy was born in Chicago and grew up in Denver. She married Roger Gohring in 1954 and moved to California in 1956. Amy bore a daughter, Ruth White, and two sons, Edward Gohring, and Thomas Gohring. She earned an ME and taught mostly 2nd and 3rd grade until she retired in 1993. She and Roger enjoyed traveling to many foreign countries and extensively in North America. She enjoyed sewing, gardening, and her grandchildren. She was a past president of the Retired Teachers Association and the Great Valley Museum Foundation. Amy was a Community Leader in 4-H and a longtime member of the Sylvan Club Amy was diagnosed with Alzheimer's in 2007. She was part of a UCSF Memory Center research project. She battled the disease 'til the end. A Celebration of Life will be held at Samaritan Village in Hughson on December 14 from 1:00 to 3:00. Remembrances may be sent to the Great Valley Museum, 435 College Ave., Modesto, CA 95350.

Tribute Wall

“ Amy Williams Gohring

January 28, 2023 at 09:01 AM