

Ana Dutra Costa

May 7, 1910 - February 18, 2012

Ana Dutra Costa passed away at the age of 101 peacefully surrounded by her family on February 18 at 2:30a.m. Born May 07, 1910 in Pedro Miguel, Faial, Acores to Manuel Dutra Costa and Inacia Rita Costa. Ana was the youngest of 10 children. Ana lived in Pedro Miguel until June 1959 when she immigrated to the United States with her sisters Rosa and Maria, brother in law Alvarino, and nieces Mary and Eva. Ana lived in Modesto for one year by herself as a care giver before moving to Newman to rejoin her beloved family for the next 20 years. In 1982, Ana moved to Turlock with Maria & Alvarino where she lived for the next 30 years. Ana never married or had children but spending time with her nieces, great nieces, great nephew and watching them grow up was the joy of her life.

Ana is survived by her nieces Mary Estacio and Eva Costa-Ferguson, great nieces Alison Lightfoot, Olivia Oliveira, Maria Estacio, Victoria Ferguson, Sara Gioletti, great nephew Joseph Estacio and 8 great-great nieces and nephews.

Ana could be described as being eternally young and independent. An always active person she loved the ocean, gardening, and crocheting. Even into her late 90s she would spend hours everyday manicuring her garden, planting seasonal vegetables and making sure no weeds were in sight. She will be truly missed by everyone who knew her.

A Funeral Mass will be held on Monday, February 27 at 10 a.m. at Our Lady of the Assumption Catholic Church in Turlock with interment to follow at Hills Ferry Cemetery in Newman.
