“ We will never forget how Papa greeted us with a hug and a big, wet kiss while chewing on that bright green gum. We'll never forget pasta nights and how he always ate everything on his plate and brought the moscato. We enjoyed playing cards with him and hearing his stories. Or how he fell asleep in the chair after dinner. We'll never forget how great his yard always looked- those hedges were perfectly shaped!

I'll never forget listening to Frank Sinatra and seeing him dance and say "this CD's jivey!" I'll remember Papa's to-the-point, quick, max of five minute phone calls to catch up that he always ended them with an "I love you, bye bye." Papa was always laughing and smiling. He always brought warmth when he was around, even if at times he could be SO stubborn. It only made us love him more. After Nana passed he was the only grandparent that we really had but he was the best, and I wouldn't have asked for it any other way. We will miss you and love you always Papa.
