“ James & Glenda and Jack & I took many trips up north to go to the county fairs. Because he was appointed as a Director for Chowchilla, he had tickets for everything! One time we all went up to Ferndale, and for some forgotten reason we were all arguing - long trip. Had a great dinner and went to the bar. Played pool (Glenda & I won the table). James & Jack challenged us to a tequila shot contest, because Jack knew I did not drink tequila. Glenda said let's go for it, so we did. She and I walked out of the bar after too many shots to count, and had a taxi waiting for James and Jack to get back to our rooms. Most important, when Jack passed, James, LLoyd, Ralph and Fred were all there for our family. Miss you James. We all had the best of times - you and your family are so very special.
