“ My sincere condolences to the Segovia family. I have known Tony all my life. I have memories of him visiting with my grandfather all the time since they were neighbors. He was always making people laugh and the life of the party. I didn't see him too often but when I did, he was always working. Anyone needed some type of landscaping done, Tony was the man to do it. He will be truly missed. Praying his family finds peace in the beautiful memories he left each of them. En Paz Descanse Tony.
