

Arthur Joseph Descoteaux

July 21, 1930 - November 15, 2018

Arthur Joseph Descoteaux, 88, went home to be with the Lord on Thursday, November 15, 2018. He passed away peacefully at his home in Pearland, TX. Arthur was born in St. Johnsbury, VT on July 21, 1930 to Wilfred and Beatrice Descoteaux. Early on, his parents relocated to California, which he called his home for the majority of his life.

Arthur served honorably in the United States Air Force from 1948 until 1953. A Korean War veteran, he worked as an Aircraft Assembly Foreman. He developed and constructed Aircrafts with Northrop Aircraft Corporation until his retirement in 1988.

Arthur's life revolved around his love for flying even after retirement. He enjoyed the privileges and beauty of holding a multi-engine pilots license throughout his life. His second passion was motorcycles. He was a Precision Motorcycle rider and member of the AMA (American Motorcycle Association). A man of faith, Arthur was also a member of Our Lady of Fatima Church in Modesto.

Arthur was preceded in death by his first wife, Janice (Dennison) Karpinski and his second wife, Levena (Bickenstaff) Descoteaux. He is survived by his sons, David W. Descoteaux of Santee, CA and Timothy A. Descoteaux of Pearland, TX.

A visitation will be held from 10 to 12 p.m., followed by a Funeral service at 12 p.m., on Monday, November 26, 2018 at Turlock Funeral Home, 425 N. Soderquist Rd., Turlock. Entombment will follow at Turlock Memorial Park.
