

Barbara Josefa Deffee

February 22, 1957 - October 20, 2024

Barbara Josefa Deffee, born on February 22, 1957, in Santa Barbara, California, passed away on October 20, 2024, in Turlock, California. She is remembered as a loving mother, grandmother, and sibling, survived by her daughter, Collette McLain; grandsons, Gabriel Fincher, Kimariyan Minor, and Billy McLain; and siblings, Pamala Deffee and Martin Deffee.

Barbara attended Mission Hill Junior High and graduated from Santa Cruz High School before pursuing her passion for beauty at Beauty College. She dedicated her career to serving others through various roles as a beautician, in retail sales, and in financial services.

Throughout her life, Barbara was an active member of the Turlock Church of Christ, where she found a community of faith and fellowship. Her hobbies included playing the clarinet in band and engaging in various home crafts.

A visitation and funeral service will be held on Thursday, October 31, 2024, at 11:00 a.m. at Turlock Funeral Home, where loved ones will gather to honor her memory.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the American Diabetes Association or Community Hospice, organizations that were close to Barbara's heart.
