“ But How Can I Say Goodbye To a Friend that I Love Bob itâ€™s been only a few dayâ€™s now since God and His Angels called you away. Oh how the Angels must have rejoiced as you walked through those Pearly Gates!

Bob you had strength that couldnâ€™t be bought while others would whimper, You always stayed strong and fought.

Bob when they called and said you had died I refused to believe it could be true. How could I allow myself to even imagine saying goodbye to you?

Bob, Weâ€™ve been the best of friends here on earth I learned so very much from you. Youâ€™re friendship always stood the test and your smile would always see us through.

You taught me how a friend should be and how to be my very best in all I do. You gave your all to me and your family never once stopping to think about you.

You were more than a friend you were my Best friend and a great listener too. Oh how I miss our special talks, and all the fun things we used to do.

Bob I can never say goodbye to you, because I could never bear the pain. Instead I say I love you Man until we meet again. May God Bless and May you now rest in peace Your Friend for Always Buck Watters

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the Blake family. It's amazing how quickly time goes by, I remember all those good Ol' race days with you Blake Boys and my unofficial Uncle Bob.

Mr. Bob Blake had been there for me more then most people know... Bob was the one who took me to take my drivers license test, I remember I locked my keys in the car after the test, I was so nervous I started crying even though I passed and Bob was there to calm me down and laugh at me. He was there for me again the first time I wrecked my car, I was too scared to call my dad, so I called Bob and he had it fixed by the time I got out of school... He was the one that helped me fill out those student loan apps, the one I called to discuss opening my business and the one who gave me the biggest hug and was proud of me when he came down to shop a few weeks back to tell me "See I knew you could do it!"

Bob was a smart, loving man and his opinion always mattered to me and he was truly loved by the Morais Family. I love you Bob and you will be greatly missed.
