February 4, 1939 - September 18, 2019

Bobby “Bob” Hurst was born in Coal Hill, Arkansas to Hual and Georgia Hurst. He grew up there until the age of 6, when the family moved to Michigan. At the age of 11, accompanied by his cousin and grandmother, they drove from Michigan and settled down in Coal Hill. At the age of 17, Bob joined the U.S. Navy and served honorably for a total of 6 years.

Bob married his first wife, Allie and together they raised three children. He met his second wife, Annabelle Francis Hurst in 1987 at a dance. After a few months went by, they fell in love and married and started their lives together with Annabelle’s five children and his mother-in-law.

An Almond Ranch Foreman in Hughson, California, Bob would often build turkey houses and work on different ranches raising turkeys.

Bob’s greatest joy in life was music. He loved to play the mandolin with family, friends, and anyone else who enjoyed playing music.

Bob is survived by his loving wife of 32 years, Annabelle Hurst; his daughter, Sheryl Overton and her husband George; daughter, Margaret; his son, David Hurst and his wife Tammy; his three step-children, Don Hansen, Tammy Burges and Anna Hansen; his two sisters, Joan Sosbee of Coal Hill, Arkansas and Anna Self of Georgia and many loving grandchildren.

Bob was preceded in death by his parents and his two step-children, Debbie Marshal and Fred Hansen.
