“ Brandon Bettencourt was one of my very first clients when I became a yoga therapist. I remember when he first reached out to me. He said, Hi, Ms. Eshoo remember me? I was in your high school business class. Can you be my yoga therapist? I'm an MMA fighter and need yoga for my back... when he lived in Marin we had a regular practice and then in Turlock. We have worked together for years and he was part of our studio. #TeamBrandon I Am Yoga was on his boxing shorts 💔 Always worked so hard to be the best. I'm still in shock. Oh Brandon you will definitely be missed. 💔 My condolences to his entire family.
