

Brian K. King

February 21, 1979 - June 22, 2022

Brian Keith King was born in Modesto, CA and passed away at home in Modesto surrounded by his loving family.

Brian Graduated from Beyer High School in 1997. After high school graduation Brian pursued his professional ambition to become a Machinist which he did for 25 years. He joined the Machinist brotherhood at Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory which is where he was employed at the time of his death.

Brian was a very kind & humble man; he had an amazing sense of humor. He married the love of his life Jennifer Holland on Oct. 2, 2010. Together the two enjoyed numerous trips to Disneyland. They frequented SF Giants games and cheered on the 49's. Brian shared his love of Cambria and Moonstone Beach with his wife Jen he proposed to her there and later spent time with his daughter collecting Moonstones. Brian loved riding his Victory motorcycle with the brotherhood motorcycle club Lethal Riders, where he made life-long friends. He loved his muscle cars, especially his '68 GTO. He also had a love of history, including civil war re-enacting which is how he was able to introduce two of his best friends which led to their marriage. As a loving and devoted family man when Brian's first daughter Adalynn was born, he said... "I would die for my nephews, but I would kill for my daughter."

Survived by: Wife, Jennifer King, Daughters, Adalynn and Abigail, Father Gordon King, Mother Carman King, Grandmother Eileene King, Sister Shannon King (Kris) nephews Harrison and Cooper, In-laws Dennis and Debbie Holland, Janelle Holland (David Pappas) nephews Zane, Ryder and Maverick, Justin Holland (Wendy) nephews Monty, Morgan, Maddox & Myles. As well as a multitude of loving Aunts, Uncles and cousins and wonderful friends. Fur babies Jovi and Bonnie.

Preceded in Death by: Brother, Shane Allen King, Grandfather, James G. King
