

Brian Ninos Warda

August 18, 1997 - October 27, 2011

Brian lived in Delhi with his aunt Atour & uncle Matthew Butler. He fought a very long and hard battle with cancer. He never let his cancer get in the way of his happiness, his inner strength and the ability to smile in face of tragedy was unmatched. Brian loved to draw & skate boarding, and was a big fan of the Raiders & Sharks. He was the most selfless person you will ever meet, a very easy going and loving person.

He leaves behind his father Ninos Warda and his mother Bobby Pace, 3 sisters: Kristina & Teresa Warda and Hope Pace. He also leaves behind his grandparents Shamiran Warda and Dora & Evert Yound , uncles Ashour Warda and Franckie Williamson, aunt Mandy and her husband Scottie Knowles. Cousins Chanteii & Amber Butler, Alex & Shamiran Warda, and Amantha Knowles.

Brian left a lasting memory in everyone he met. He will be forever in our hearts.

Tribute Wall

“ Brian Ninos Warda

January 28, 2023 at 09:01 AM

“ I miss you Brian, I cant possibly begin to explain how much it hurts that your gone. I wish that this was all a nightmare that i could wake up from. you meant the most to me bubba you were my heart and with out you I don't think My heart could ever be the same no one could fill that spot. you always protected me even though I was 4 years older then you that didn't stop you from worrying about me. then when hope, our little sister came along i could see how excited you were just like me when you came home from the hospital, you were a big brother & you were so happy. you were the best brother a a kid could ever ask for. you have treated every one that you have came across in life with so much love and kindness and touched the lives of so many people my love and we are all heart broken with out you. you didn't get a fare chance at life and I would give anything for you to be here. I love you Brian Austin Ninos Warda. rest in peace.

Krisina Warda - December 10, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Atour,Ninos,Shameran I'm sorry for your loss,My condolences, , it`s hard for sure but hopefully he is in a better place now , May god bless his soul. Rest In Peace..

Esho warda - November 17, 2011 at 12:00 AM

JP

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Your family has been in my thoughts and will continue. I used to draw Brians blood at a lab in Turlock. All of us at the lab got used to Brian, we knew exactly how he wanted his blood drawn.I even bought Brian his own box of colored bandaids. I remember the day I only had a purple one left and I was affraid he wouldn't like purple. To my surprise his mom said he like purple. I will miss seeing Brian. The Warda family is in all of our thoughts and prayers at the Lab.

Jeanna Pritt

Jeanna Pritt - October 30, 2011 at 12:00 AM

MH

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Sissy (Bobby), I wished I could be there with you and the girls. I will always remember the last time I talked to Brian. He told me, "I love you, Big as the sky Aunt Sissy." You said he told everyone that, now he is big as the sky. Love you Brian, and I love you all too.

Melissa Hale - October 30, 2011 at 12:00 AM

TC

“ Brian was one of the best students I have taught. He loved learning, especially hands on projects. Even in the midst of the worst days, he never quit and was always ready with a smile. I was privileged to have known Brian and his family.

Than Caseri - October 29, 2011 at 12:00 AM

AG

“ deepest condolences to all of brians family and friends.my heart and prayers go out to you. I love you brian.ee

alice gomez - October 29, 2011 at 12:00 AM