

Brigham Bronson Branch

June 6, 1942 - July 14, 2024

Brigham Bronson Branch passed away on July 14, 2024, at the age of 82, in Turlock, California. Born on June 6, 1942, in Big Bend, California, Brigham led a life marked by his warm personality and a profound commitment to service.

A people-person through and through, Brigham was known for his friendly and generous nature. He never met a stranger and had an exceptional ability to connect with everyone he met. His love for people was evident in every aspect of his life.

Brigham proudly volunteered with the military, retiring after a distinguished career. His dedication to service continued as a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW), where he engaged with fellow veterans and participated in community activities.

Beyond his service, Brigham had a unique hobby of collecting feathers, a passion that took him to various locales, always adding to his diverse collection. His love for meeting new people often intertwined with his hobby, bringing stories and new connections with each feather found.

Brigham is survived by his loving wife, Barbara Ostlund; children, Michael Branch, Anna Marie Guernsey, Brian Branch, and Melissa Branch; step-daughters, Phyllis Libby and Janice Carr; and sister, Nancy English. He was preceded in death by his parents, Donald and Anna Branch; siblings, Norma Quiroz, Charles Branch, Demita Branch, Philip Branch, and Corrina Branch.

Private services will be held to honor Brigham's life and legacy. His warmth, generosity, and unwavering spirit will be deeply missed by all who knew him.
