“ Hi sweetie,

Miss you and wish you were here. I need a shoulder to cry on. Have you talked to your mom she is with you now. I guess I am no longer part of the family. No one calls me or ask how I am. Saturday the 24th I will be 62 its been a long lonely life I have had. Being with you for so long was the best time I have had with a partner. I wish we would have gotten married now so I could handle your stuff, your son wants everything. He got your truck I guess he will get the rest of it also. Well I guess it doesn't matter to you now. Good night sweetie I love you.

Sherry Berg - September 10, 2016 at 11:32 PM

“ Hi sweetie, Nick and I came to see you yesterday. I hope you were watching us as we talked to you and to each other how much we miss you. Nick was telling stories about when you guys were younger and going to school together. He feels guilty he was not here for you. He hopes you are looking out for us. I just found out your mom passed away Sunday. I guess you guys are together now. I will be down on Friday again for your moms funeral and will see you too. Love you sweetie.

“ Well I am looking at your picture and just don't know what to say. I miss you. Nick will be here at the end of the month. We plan on coming down to see you. My heart is still breaking and I can't stop loving you. I know they say time heals all wounds but this will take forever for me. Considering I am 62 and really don't have that many years left I will go to my grave still loving you Cesar. Will we see each other on the other side. I don't know but I hope so. Till then I will just keep loving you.

“ Well here I am again sweetie. Looking at your picture and missing you. I will keep posting messages to you until they stop me or take your site down. “ I tried to post a video of Cesar with a little bird we found in the backyard one year. We named him Edger and thought he was a baby hawk. We feed him meal worms and Cesar fell in love with him. Edger loved to sit on our shoulders and pick our ears and hair with his beak. I remember how gentle Cesar was holding him and feeding him. We both cried when we found out Edger was really a Mexican fighting rooster and we had to give him to his uncle when he started crowing every morning. Cesar said he had never had a pet before and thanked me for letting him experiencing what it was like to care for one. Edger will miss you sweetie. Please let me know that you are ok now. I need to know that you are now really at peace. Love and miss you.

Cesar was a master auditor at work. He would always help me with my schedules and he could develop the greatest spreadsheets with arrows pointing to his comments. I always admired his work and he was a good friend. We will miss your mom's Baklava in the office and this place will not be the same without you here man. You had the coolest hat and were a great friend to all of us. Cheers my friend may you Rest in Peace.

“ I have known Cesar for the past 14 years. He has loved my kids and they loved him. Every time he seen them he would chase them around saying I'm going to pinch your chubby cheeks lol. He would always freak out thinking my kids would color on his walls too lol. But he always thought about them and every time he went anywhere he would always buy them toys and give the toys to them. and they knew he always had candy and when we would see him they would always ask him for candy and they would get it lol. He loved giving them toys and seeing the smiles that it would put on their little faces. He was a special part of our lives and my kids and I will miss him greatly. We love you Cesar may you rest in peace now. Watch over the chubby cheeks for me they will miss seeing you.
