“ Charlie was a good wrestler back in the day, I couldn't pin him down in practice. Roll forward to 1980 I was living in Redding and one night I went clubbing at Doc Clearie's and there he was hanging out. We got reacquainted had a beer and then some, a good time. Years later I came across him or he was a resident at Turlock nursing home. I will go visit Charlie every now and chat with him. Hang out and keep them company I felt for the guy in his situation. I'll see you on the other side, my friend.
