“ *Cheryl will be missed by all that knew her.. She was such a great cousin! We all loved her. I will never forget the times she came to our house on her lunch break and spent time with my sisters and brother. She always made us feel so special.. You never know what a little kindness means to others, especially to young children.. You left a great impression on me, and I hope I have shown others the kindness that you showed me.
I will miss you, Cheryl..*

“ One memory in particular that comes to mind, was her boldness to stand up to The Enemy! She had asked me to teach a Bible Study to an acquaintance in her home.

During one lesson, we were constantly being distracted by the house pet, a small adorable Black Kitten. It was playful, and attracted to the Bible Chart by all the colors and kept striking the back of the Chart causing it to fall over.

Cheryl had reached her Limit!

Assuming the Enemy could possibly use the actions of this small animal to distract the teaching of God’s Word to a Hungry Young Woman, she took complete charge!

To my surprise, she courageously stood up and with much Authority and Indignation, at the top of her lungs, yelled (something to the effect of) ,

“SATAN!!! You are Not Going To Do This Anymore! I rebuke You, In Jesus Name!”

The young woman asked Cheryl, “You named this Kitty, Satan?” We often referred to this memory with much affection as we were both traveling on a journey of Single Parenting. We shared Spiritual Wealth and Great Faith.

It was my humblest honor to have spent time with Cheryl and her Family.

I will miss her deeply, but her voice, in my memory will replay what she once said to me when we first had Fellowship, “There, but for the grace of God, go I” 🙏

I grew up with the Casey girls..long pentecostal curls.long dresses and obsessed with the Lord and Satan .it was very unsettling to see the hypocrisy of pentecostal hell and damnation crap.they couldn't be children they were walking around condemning everyone.self righteous robots learned behavior from their obsessive parents.

Calling a cat Satan because it liked the colors in the bible..what kind of teacher of God is that.

“ Cheryl is one of the most loving people I've ever known. She loved, cared, and shared. When life became tough, Cheryl helped, prayed, and stayed. She was gracious and selfless. Heaven knows how important you are to Jeff and LeAnn, Nancy, and Heather. I am honored to have known you. Thank you for always being there and making a difference. Sweet passing and glorious homecoming...
