August 10, 1946 - August 24, 2020

Cheryl Mireles passed away in Modesto on Monday, August 24th. She was 74 years old.

Cheryl was born in Portland, OR on August 10, 1946 to Harold and June Graves. She attended Turlock High School. She married her true love, Felipe R. Brown School to be with her children while they were in elementary school. She was also employed with the Modesto Bee from 1980 until her retirement in 2002, and then later with Sutter Gould Medical Group.

Family was everything to Cheryl. She loved her husband, her children, grandchildren, and her soon-to-be great-grandson. She loved to cook and made sure everyone who visited got to eat at her home. She invited friends and the friends of her children and grandchildren into her home as part of the family. It gives her family comfort knowing that they will be reunited in heaven one day.
