“ We just heard about Christina's passing, she was one of the sweetest people I have ever had the privilege of knowing. There will be a piece missing in this world without her, but I know she is at home with our Lord and Savior. One of my sweetest memories of her is walking by her home, her blinds open, her sitting in her chair reading her Bible. My memories of her are a treasure, and I know one day we shall meet again. My deepest sympathy to her family.
