“ *I am so sorry to hear about Christina.
It saddens us all to lose someone so dear to us.
I am sending my condolences and also a comforting scripture.
"And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away" -Revelation 21:4
This scripture is God's promise to reverse death's effect with a resurrection hope on earth and bring an end to sickness.
This is such an encouraging scripture to me and I hope that it will be of comfort to Christina's family and friends.*

“ My mother in law was the strongest most caring individual I have ever met. From the time my husband Mark Haro (her oldest son) introduced me to her she was nothing but accepting and loving. She was a very compassionate person. Even though she was very ill, she always brought a smile to everyone's face. The last time I spoke to Mom she told me "I don't know what I would do without you." Well now I find myself asking the same question only to her. We are all lost at the moment trying to cope with losing her. I know God will reunite us again.
