

Craig M. Carlberg

March 12, 1963 - October 17, 2023

Craig M. Carlberg, 60, of Turlock, passed away in Modesto, CA on Oct. 17, 2023. Born in Turlock on March 12, 1963, to Karen Arrollo, he was active in youth and high school sports. He played baseball in Little League, Senior League, and for Turlock High, where he graduated in 1981. As a player and teammate, Craig found success at every level, winning multiple championships and building lifelong friendships along the way. His love for baseball, sports and laughter never wavered. A lifelong Yankees fan, he played softball for local teams for nearly 40 years. A proud father and grandfather of six, he enjoyed attending their sporting events and supporting them throughout his life.

Craig worked for D&V Construction in Modesto for many years, where he learned the trade of carpentry. He also became a housing inspector later in his career. In his spare time, he loved watching movies, going to concerts, and fishing.

He is survived by his two daughters, Lynzee Corvello (John) of Turlock; Jordan Carlberg of Folsom; brother, Stan Carlberg, and sister-in-law, Charlene, of Tigard, OR; nephews Max Coburn of Modesto, Tobin and Campbell Carlberg of Tigard, nieces Hadley and Shea Carlberg of Tigard, and six grandchildren Raegan, Logan, Deagan, Karsen, Kaden, and Ryder. Craig was preceded in death by his mother, Karen (Sagres), and sister, Michelle (Twitchell).

A Celebration of Life will be held on Thursday, Nov. 9, at the Mt. View Grange Hall located at 9737 Crows Landing Road in Crows Landing, CA starting at 2:00 p.m.

To a great friend and athlete, I will always remember playing softball tournaments with you in the outfield and your famous quote "Must be Caught" line drive's hit in the gap diving every where.

Love you bratha!
