

Dan J. Konschak

January 14, 1956 - November 26, 2025

Dan was born in Lima, Ohio to Bill and MaryAnna Konschak. He was the third of six children: Chris (Penny) Konschak, Sue (John) Simone, (Dan), Tom (Theresa) Konschak, Lynn (Dan) Long, Joyce (Bob) Soran. He grew up in Ohio, Michigan, Arizona and then in the Modesto/Turlock area since 1972.

Dan married Lori (Whaley) 43 years ago. Together they had Jenny (Tim) Nicolau and Mark (Shannon) Konschak. Four amazing grandchildren have blessed their lives: Ella and Mia Nicolau, and Brixton and Aliah Konschak.

Dan worked for Gallo Glass as a mechanic for 38 years before retiring. 26 years ago, their family moved to 4 acres in the country. Dan loved planting trees and Lori loved planting flowers. They had a beautiful garden together. Gardening became a passion. Vacations centered around visiting gardens, and the Fresno Zoo with the grandchildren. Dan was a member of Calvary Chapel, Modesto where he served in many roles: children's ministries, setting up for events, Persecuted ministries, serving in the library, and more. Dan and Lori restored old Tonka trucks, 1930's slot machines, and cars.

Dan's health declined due to a rare AL Amyloidosis. He still enjoyed seeing his kids and grandchildren on a regular basis with their help continuously.

Dan was a faithful servant and was excited to meet his Lord and Savior.

Donations to be given to Community Hospice 4368 Spyres Way, Modesto, CA 95350.

A Memorial Service will be at Turlock Funeral Home, Dec. 5, 2025 at 2 p.m.

“ Dan would willing lend a hand, and faithfully behind the scenes. If he hadn't seen me or a family member around church; he often checked in and asked if we were doing ok.
Praying for your family.

“ When I think of Dan I think of a servant of the Lord who loves Jesus. He was always serving in many different ministries. I think of his care and concern for others, always asking how my wife and kids by name were doing. I think of his love for the lost and going to share the gospel of Jesus Christ with them. Dan will be greatly missed by so many. I look forward to seeing him and so many others again in heaven one day with our God and Savior Jesus Christ.

“ Dan is one of the most humble, consistent, and faithful servants of the Lord that I knew. He could always be counted on to be there on-time and ready to help. I use the present tense in referring to Dan as he is more alive now than he ever was because he placed his faith in Jesus, the Christ, who claimed to be the way, the truth, the life, and the only path to God, the Father.
