

Diana Cecilia Cuevas

May 26, 1983 - May 14, 2020

Diana Cecilia Cuevas, born May 26, 1983 in Turlock, California, was unexpectedly called to heaven on Thursday, May 14, 2020, at the age of 36, due to an unforeseen health complication. She left us as a loving mother, daughter, and sister. She had an incredibly captivating, stunning, impactful personality and aura about her everywhere that she went. She had the ability to fill an empty room with her bellowing, joyful laugh and presence. She had mannerisms that made anyone she spoke with feel that they were the most valuable and important person in the world. But the truest victory Diana had in life, was stirring the hearts of everyone she met.

Diana is survived by her sisters, Lindsey Ruether, Monica Maxey, and Andrea Cuevas; her brothers, JP Cuevas and Pablo S. Cuevas; as well as her father, Pablo Cuevas and her step-father, Donald Ruether. She left behind her three children, Makenzie Mason, Grace Stewart, and David Stewart. She was preceded in death by her mother, Martha Ruether. Diana will live forever in our hearts.
