

Dorothy Lu Fern Headley

July 9, 1933 - May 1, 2010

Dorothy was born at home, in Meeker Oklahoma. She was the only Daughter of Marvin and Pearl Kimbley. Though she was the only daughter she was not the only child for the Kimbley's. Dorothy had 5 brothers Carl, T. J., Leon, Roy, and Harry.

In 1951 Dorothy married Lawrence Prosser. Together they had 3 Children. Linda, Larry, and Lloyd. After Lawrence's death she married Joe Headley and they had a daughter Joy. Dorothy was known as Mom or Grandma to others as well. She always had a open heart to family and friends alike. From Dorothy's five Children: Linda Krall, Larry Prosser, Lloyd Prosser, Joy Johnson, and John Collins, she has 36 Grandchildren, 61 Great Grandchildren, and 5 Great Great Grandchildren. She is also preceded in death by her husband Joe Headley, Her long time partner Ernest Collins and all 5 of her brothers.

In her 30's Dorothy owned and operated a beauty salon in Sunnyvale California. Years later she moved to the Central Valley where for 10 years she owned Headley's Rabbit Tree, a rabbit farm in Stevinson California. Dorothy's Children and Grand children have many memories and stories to tell of the home in Stevinson. After the Rabbit business Dorothy went to school to get her nursing license. Dorothy was a CNA and worked for years at Brandel Manor in Turlock. Even with all the Careers Dorothy's true passion was her family. She enjoyed every moment shared with them. She was deeply loved and will be truly missed.
