

Douglas Leroy Neibauer

February 3, 1940 - September 16, 2016

Douglas Leroy Neibauer was born on February 3, 1940 in Billings, Montana. Douglas was the third of five children born to Alex Neibauer and Gladys (Mainwaring) Neibauer.

He grew up on the family farm near Chinook, Montana. Due to unforeseen circumstances (farm was destroyed by flooding) the family moved to Billings, Montana, where Douglas graduated from Billings High School. He attended the University of Montana and graduated from the law school in 1964, at the age of 24.

After receiving his law degree, Douglas clerked for a Montana Supreme Court justice and then served in the US Air Force JAG Corp, attaining the rank of Captain. After leaving the JAG (1967), he re-entered civilian life as an assistant district attorney for Yellowstone County, Montana. However, having lived in California during his military service Doug decided to return (1969).

The weather was excellent for playing tennis, his favorite pass time!!

Douglas joined the law firm, Strauss, Neibauer in Modesto, California, where he practiced law with ethical principals, trustworthy conviction and the utmost integrity until 2015.

Douglas was pre-deceased by his parents, an older brother Lawrence and his first wife Shirley. He leaves his wife Frances (Moushoul) Neibauer, a son Max, from his first marriage (Julie) and grandchildren Allison, Justin and Katie.

Stepchildren Lily Ann (Bob) Bence, Jane (Todd) Smith, Carmen (Mark)

and Gayle McKerrow .

Douglas was a member of Del Rio CC, Modesto Tennis Club, SOS, California Bar and the local bar association.
