

Earl Lee Stapp

March 10, 1942 - January 5, 2012

Earl Lee Stapp, 69, stepped into the arms of his Savior on Thursday, Jan. 5, after a short illness.

Earl was born the youngest of four to Mary and Oplless Stapp in Tolleson, Arizona, on March 10, 1942, while the family was moving to CA. He grew up in Hughson and attended local schools.

Earl spent much of his life outdoors, driving fork lifts, building homes, and working for the Turlock Irrigation District. He enjoyed hunting and fishing, and spent many happy hours riding horses, steer roping, and camping in the mountains. He was a committed Christian and attended Monte Vista Chapel. He cherished his famiy and many friends, and enjoyed wood working and the CA SIRS.

Earl is survived by his children Paige Stapp, Lynee and husband Mario Travalini, Becky and husband Mike Murrow, and Keith Stapp, as well as his brother John Stapp. Grand children include Trevor Rico, Tristen Travalini, Sonja and Kaleb Hedstrom, and Ian Stapp. He was preceeded in death by his wife Marilyn, his parents Mary and Oplless Stapp, and siblings Clell Passmore and Virginia Denman.

Memorial services will include private burial at Turlock Cemetery followed by a public memorial service at Monte Vista Chapel, 1619 E Monte Vista Ave., Turlock, CA. at 2:00 pm on Tuesday January 10. Memorials can be sent to United Samaritans in Hughson, Ca

“ To each of the Stapp Family,

Our condolences are with each of you at this time of your lives. It was always a pleasure being around Earl, especially with his new project. You had wonderful parents and your children had wonderful grandparents. May Earl find peace when he met with your mother, Marilyn. May God bless each of you. Rest in peace, Earl.

“ " If your not allowed to laugh in heaven, I don't want to go there".
Martin Luther

Well, that is why, however folks for centuries have been trying to figure out WHAT the heck, and HOW the heck heaven is going to be...I kinda figure this LAUGHING THING is why Earl Stapp is there.

Because that simple, humble and make-you-feel-at-ease laugh of his sure was valuable when is was physically with us. Now Earl no doubt will be using that natural gift of his in heaven.

I met Earl, way back in the early '80's at a church. He always,always, would call-out at me " Hey, BUD !"... " What's going on,buddy!"

Buddy.

In that, twang, that unique accent that was his.." Hey, buddy!"

And then always, always, always that laugh would follow.

I am eternally grateful.

Can't wait to see my buddy.
