“ It seems unreal that Allan is gone, I can't comprehend how someone who loved life so much is no longer with us. Allan wasn't just my fraternity brother, he was a good friend and fellow PT. I last saw him a few years back when he traveled to NJ to attend a fraternity reunion and I'll never forget seeing him calm and casual, dressed a bit preppy but sporting a pair of Vibram FiveFingers shoes as if this was something normal. To me that was Allan, a kind and good friend who was always put together but with a unique twist that made you smile. I'll miss you brother!

“ I worked with Ed, “Mr. V” for many years. He was the “union rep” for all of the employees. He cared about EVERYONE! Even after I retired, he kept in touch. I will miss our talks so much. He was truly a very special person that I will always miss! My prayers are with all of the family including his California Rehab family.
