

Elizabeth Klingler

May 26, 1919 - January 10, 2011

Elizabeth Betsy Klingler passed away peacefully in her home on January 10, 2011 surrounded by her husband Dan Klingler and her care givers, Ashely Ramos, Patty Ramos, and Melissa Herrera.

Betsy was a graduate of Virginia Tech and studied at Columbia University. She became a child nutritionist and worked for over 30 years calling on schools in California. Her territory included schools from Sacramento to Merced, California.

While in Merced one day, she met Dan Klingler, a retired us Navy pilot who was in the Beckman and Co/ Merrill Lynch Financial investments program. They dated, got married in 1975, and lived happily. Betsy Klingler lived until the age of 91. Her body was worn out and her life left her. She died and was pleased to go and be with her savior, Jesus Christ.

Visitation will be held from 5-8pm on Mon. 01/17/2011 at Turlock Funeral Home. Funeral services will be held at 10am at Turlock Funeral Home Chapel, 425 N. Soderquist Rd, followed with entombment at Lakewood Memorial Park.
