

Emogene Mae Elmquist

June 28, 1928 - April 12, 2015

Longtime Turlock/Hilmar resident Emogene Elmquist passed away peacefully at her home on April 12, 2015 at the age of 86, following a short illness.

Emogene was born to John and Emelia Heppner in Reedley, California. She grew up in Plainsburg and graduated from Le Grand High School in 1946. She attended Samuel Merritt School of Nursing in Oakland and graduated in the class of 1950.

Emogene met her future husband Hilding Elmquist through a mutual friend and married in 1951. She managed farm property following Hilding's death in 1971.

Emogene was also preceded in death by her son, Eric Elmquist, who died in 1999. She is survived by two daughters, Sandra Johnson (Bob) of Concord, and Carrie deBruyn (Jim) of Turlock, five grandchildren, Lindsay deBruyn Ahlem (Mark) of Turlock, Kyle deBruyn (Jessica) of Pittsburgh, PA, Todd Johnson (Tracie) of Fresno, Brett Johnson (Cheryl) of Petaluma, and Jill Johnson of Pleasant Hill, eight great-grandchildren, and her many special friends.

A visitation will be held on Tuesday, April 21 from 4:00 to 7:00 p.m. at Turlock Funeral Home, 425 N. Soderquist Rd., in Turlock. Graveside services will be held on Wednesday, April 22 at 10:00 a.m. at Turlock Memorial Park followed by a Celebration of Emogene's Life at 1:30 p.m. at Cornerstone Covenant Church, 4105 Crowell Rd., also in Turlock.

Memorial contributions can be sent to Cornerstone Covenant Church or Westside Ministries, 950 Columbia Ave., Turlock.

“ Our hearts were saddened to hear of Emogenes passing and so sorry we were unable to be at her Memorial. She was a lovely and wonderful person loved by many. We pray for her family at this time but know they are all in peace with knowing she is with her heavenly Father. Jim and Shirley Stevens

“ I wish I could have known Emogene, she looks like a wonderful lady. My sister Shirley was married to Eric for a short time. Shirley spoke highly of her. We wish you, the family much comfort and blessings from God! Ezra is doing well. He lives about a mile from me. Hugs and prayers!
