

Eshagh Yadegar Digaleh

January 30, 1949 - April 21, 2026

Eshagh was born on January 30, 1949, into Amoojan and Lily Yadegar — a man whose hands and heart were equally gifted. He was a truly talented craftsman, known for his remarkable skill, patience, and dedication to his art. Every piece he created carried a part of his spirit: meticulous, thoughtful, and enduring. His legacy lives on not only through his work, but also through the many lives he touched with his kindness, humility, and quiet strength.

He was a devoted husband to Aunty Seda and a loving father to his four children: Zhan, Zhak, Jantin, and Katrin. He was also a proud and caring grandfather to Matilda, Mathew, and Chantrell. Family was always at the center of his world. The love, care, and respect within his home reflected the kind and honorable man he was.

We are especially grateful to his wife, daughters, and sons, who stood beside him with unwavering devotion, compassion, and dignity throughout his final days. Their tenderness and care brought him comfort and peace, and for that, our entire family will remain forever thankful.

Eshagh's professional life was equally admirable. He began his career as a media and television stage designer for Urmia Seda/Seema, where his creativity and craftsmanship quickly distinguished him. Through hard work, talent, and dedication, he rose to become the head designer and stage manager of the woodshop, contributing to countless television productions and the many awards that followed. His work behind the scenes helped bring stories to life and left a lasting impact on his field.

He will always be remembered for his gentle soul, extraordinary talent, and the unconditional love he gave so freely to his family and those around him. His passing leaves a profound void in our hearts, but his memory will forever live on through the beautiful work he created and the love he shared.
