

Evan Maddocks Sousa

April 21, 1992 - September 4, 2010

Evan was born in the town of Modesto, California on April 21, 1992. A recent graduate of Denair High School (c/o 2010), Evan played, soccer, basketball, football, and ran track. Evan was preceded in death by his father Chris Sousa and his maternal grandparents: Glen and Martha Vergara. Evan leaves behind his mother and father: Allison and Dave Sutton, his two brothers: Brenden and Zackery Sousa; grand-parents Joe and Jessie Sousa, Jan Sutton, long time girlfriend Ana, beloved uncle, aunts, cousins, friends and his new puppy moose. A natural born leader, Evan had charisma, ambition and a great ability to connect with people. In the past month, Evan had been inspired to become an Ag teacher- a career choice that would surely have allowed this young man to express his skills and continue to inspire others with his zest for exploring life. Evans favorite quote is from Michael Jordan:"I can accept failure; everyone fails at something. But I can't accept not trying." Viewing: Turlock Funeral Home, 425 N. Soderquist Rd. “ Sousa/Sutton Family, No words can express how sorry we are for your loss. We feel very fortunate that our son Tyler chose Evan as friend. He was such a great young man, always smiling, friendly and had such a great personality. You guys did a great job raising him. He will always hold a special place in our hearts and we will never forget him. Your family will be in our prayers. Joel, Anne, Tyler and Nicole Sanders

“ To each of Evan's family, may I say "I am so sorry he was taken away from you at this time of his life". It was a pleasure to know him the short time that I did. What a wonderful young man you raised, Allison. I shall never forget his smile and of course his hair. He gave a wonderful tribute to his Ag teach, Mr. Perez, just six days before he left this world. Little did we know we would be honoring him just a few short days later. God has a reason for this, but I for one admit I will never know. That is between Evan and God. Hugs to each of you and always know how Evan much love everyone felt for Evan. Hugs to all of you!!
