

Francisco Javier Reynoso Romo

January 23, 1962 - April 23, 2026

Francisco Javier Reynoso Romo, born on January 19, 1962, in Jalostotitlán, Jalisco, Mexico, passed away on April 23, 2026, in Turlock, California.

Francisco was raised in Jalos, Mexico. He moved from Jalostotitlán to Los Angeles, then Oakland, back to LA, and finally to Turlock where he resided until his passing. He completed his G.E.D. and worked as a concrete finisher until his retirement in 2010. Francisco continued to manage properties as a landlord until his passing.

He is survived by his longtime partner, Maria de Jesus Enriquez; his son, Jonathan Reynoso; and his daughter, Erika Reynoso. Francisco was preceded in death by his parents, Ramona Romo and Jose Maria Reynoso.

Francisco enjoyed going to the gym and long walks around California State University Stanislaus. He was an avid baseball fan, cherishing the moments spent watching games. Francisco loved to go swimming and would often hangout at the hot tub talking with his friends.
