

Freda Nell (Biggerstaff) Hicks

June 1, 1928 - November 22, 2020

Freda Nell (Biggerstaff) Hicks, 92, of Turlock, CA, passed away on November 22nd.

Freda was born in June of 1928 to the late Myrtle Jo Bolt Biggerstaff and Creston Everett Biggerstaff in Oklahoma City, OK. She was married, March 1949, to the late Floyd Eugene Hicks. Freda and Floyd moved in 1978 from Fremont, CA to Midwest City, OK for Floyd's work with General Motors Company.

She was a seamstress most of her life and an active and faithful Lutheran. Among her many passions was genealogy, where she volunteered with the local archives in Oklahoma City, assisting many with information about their relatives. After Floyd's passing, Freda moved from Midwest City to Turlock, CA.

Freda was the eldest of five sisters, including Phyllis Evon McGrath (Deceased), Elizabeth Ann "Betty" Frost, Marcilyn Mae Hart and Karen Brown. She is survived by four children, Dan Everett Hicks, Shelley Gwyn Reavis, Lee Anne Pinkerton, and Kevin Eugene Hicks; six grandchildren, Ryan Zachary Hicks, Shaun Creston Pinkerton, Christine Jonelle Kawaguchi, Stephanie Jonell Shadwick, Jarad Lee Pinkerton and Kristofer Robert Hicks, and six great-grandchildren.

Freda would not have wanted flowers to be sent, because as she would say, "all you do is just watch them die." Due to the current pandemic and per Freda's wishes, a memorial service will not be held.
