

George J. Cabral

January 19, 1927 - November 20, 2015

George Cabral passed away Friday, November 20, in Hughson, California, after a brief and sudden illness. He was born January 19, 1927 to Antonio and Augusta Cabral and raised on family ranch in south Turlock. George attended Turlock Schools until his sophomore year when he had to take care of his siblings after the tragic loss of his parents.

George served his country in the U.S. Army during WWII and served in Okinawa. After the war he worked in construction for Frank Souza, and then had his own construction business for 50 years. His specialty was old hay barns. George liked going to Portuguese Festas, gardening, working in his orchard, wood projects, western movies, and spending time with friends and family.

George is preceded in death by his parents, 8 brothers, 3 sisters, and his only daughter Lydia Cabral. He is survived by his loving wife of 46 years, Deborah Cabral, sister, Arlene Rushing, and many beloved nieces and nephews.

A visitation will be held Thursday, December 10 from 2:00 to 7:00 p.m. at Turlock Funeral Home, 425 N. Soderquist Rd., in Turlock. Interment services in Turlock Memorial Park will be private.
