

Ida Desamparado Deiparine

September 3, 1933 - April 30, 2025

Ida Desamparado Deiparine passed away peacefully at her home in Merced, California, on April 30, 2025, at the age of 91.

Born on September 3, 1933, in Bantayan, Cebu, Philippines, Ida was the eldest of five children. She completed her high school education in the Philippines and married her husband, Camilo B. Deiparine. In 1969, they moved to the United States, beginning their new life in Seattle, then moving to Los Angeles and eventually retiring in Merced.

Ida dedicated over 20 years of her life to caring for others as a nurse assistant. She began her career working in various skilled nursing facilities before deciding to work at L.A. County USC Medical Center Women's Hospital where she retired after about 15 years of service.

Outside of work, Ida found joy in sewing, crocheting, cooking, and traveling. These hobbies brought her comfort and fulfillment throughout her life.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Josue and Leliosa Desamparado; her brother, Job Desamparado; and her sister, Maria Flor D. Williams.

Ida is survived by her devoted husband of 60 years, Camilo B. Deiparine; her daughter, Vera D. Rocco; son-in-law, Scott W. Rocco; and beloved grandson,

Andrew D. Rocco.

“ My whole heart and my prayers are with each of you 💕💕 Grandma Ida was always so kind, sweet, giving, and funny. Whenever I was with her, she would always have me laughing and smiling with her! One of my favorite memories is when we stayed over during spring break of 2011, and she made us pancakes in the morning! She always made sure we were well fed! I love how caring and warm she was. I'll always keep her close to my heart 💕💕
