“ Uncle Luke demonstrated his love through communication, poetry and his passion for the legal discipline. We enjoyed hearing about his new recipes and seeing his love for gardening. His wit and playful banter along with his laugh will continue to fill our hearts with love. We love you Tio Luke, Cyra and Irene.

Luke, I will forever cherish the good times we shared. There's no way to make up for time lost and now gone but I hope wherever you are, you know that you are truly loved and we hope you find peace and Joy.
