JAMES ROEMER

Jun. 25, 1924 - Nov. 30, 2017

Modesto, CA

James J. Roemer passed away in Modesto, CA on November 30, 2017 at the age of 93. He joins his wife Cecelia "Cec" in heaven.

James was born on June 25, 1924 in Milwaukee, WI. Shortly after high school he entered the Army Air Corps, serving as a flight instructor, and later attaining the rank of Captain. While in college, he played baseball and was drafted by the Chicago White Sox. However, he chose to continue his education and graduated with a degree in engineering from the University of Illinois.

James and Cec moved to California to start their family in the San Francisco Bay Area. He was a civil engineer for Eichler Home Builders and George S. Nolte and Associates, from which he retired as an associate in 1992. In 2006, after the death of his wife, he moved to Modesto. Throughout his life he enjoyed family, friends, fishing and golf.

James was preceded in death by his brother Robert and his sisters Dorothy Nolan, Mary Roemer and Ruth Prest.

He is survived by his children Karen Bougoukalos of Delhi, Celia Glynn (Robert) of Modesto and Steven (Kathy) of Port Angeles, WA. James also left behind his three grandchildren Ashley (Mike) Weaver, Christopher Glynn and Amy Bougoukalos. He had two great-grandchildren, Benjamin and Charlotte

Weaver, as well as many nieces and nephews.

A celebration of life will be held on January 27, 2018 in Modesto.
