

Jeffrey Garrett Davis

September 26, 1983 - March 3, 2016

Jeffrey Garrett Davis was a loving son, brother, cousin and uncle. Jeffrey was born in CA, September 26, 1983. Due to a disability he learned early to appreciate life's finer points. His interests were unique and intense. A fan of Power Rangers, video games, the San Jose Sharks and Anaheim Ducks, and Hanna Montana. The family forgave him years ago for Hanna Montana! But that speaks to his sense of loyalty to the people and things he loved. His most prized connection was with his ever doting and loving dad. His life was a quiet one faced with numerous physical challenges; his example of joy found, people loved, and humor shared will be missed by all who loved him. Jeffrey is survived by his loving father Gary Davis, his brother's Mark (Jamie) Smith , John (Melissa) Smith and his nephews Nathan Smith, Kyle Smith, Nicolas Smith, and niece Taeler Smith. He is preceded in death by his mother Barbara Ruth Davis.
