

Jennifer Jo Hayden

September 2, 1946 - August 29, 2021

Jennifer Jo Hayden, a resident of Waterford, passed away peacefully with her loving family by her side on Sunday, August 29, 2021. She was 74 years old.

Jennifer was born on September 2, 1946 in Fort Sill, Oklahoma, to James and Elva Frances Marsh. In 1961, Jennifer, her parents, and her four siblings, Janice, Joan, James, and Angela, relocated to California, ultimately settling in Turlock within California's Central Valley.

Jennifer loved to love people and over the years developed a large group of friends that she considered her extended family. It was her dedication to her family, both born and chosen, that would define her character. She was known to be a fierce, loving, and loyal mother, friend, and sister to her 'family'. Additionally, she had a singular sense of humor that frequently would disarm a new friend and keep her 'family' laughing with her.

Jennifer is survived by her sister Joan, brother James, sons Shane and Monte, daughters Stephanie and Andrea, and grandchildren Kimberly, Kayla, Samantha, Miranda, Jerrichah, Dylan, Connor, Angela and great-granddaughter Madison.

Please join her family Wednesday afternoon, September 8, 2021, at 2:00 p.m., at Turlock Funeral Home, 425 N. Soderquist Rd, Turlock, CA, for a funeral service. A Celebration of Life will follow at Village Christian Fellowship, 5216 Yosemite Blvd., Modesto, CA (Empire).

“ Jennifer was a friend of mine. I met her at English Oaks in oct. of 2019. She shared a room with my wife, and i think GOD put her there. she was like a watch dog, and would bark at the attendants when they didn't respond quickly enough for my wifes needs. I loved her for that. I taught her the fine art of stealing pens. they all have a story of how they were taken. I brought her a pen every day, and a story to go with it. she gave me a fist full of straws on my last day. I went to see her twice and she gave me four phone numbers, witch all were wrong. She's in heaven now with my wife Del Williams, Modesto.
