

Jerry David Cooper

November 27, 1945 - June 2, 2013

Jerry Cooper, 67, passed away June 2, 2013 at Alexander Cohen Hospice House, after a courageous battle with cancer. Jerry was born in Muncie, Indiana and grew up in Arizona and New Mexico. He moved to San Jose and worked for FMC, Wells Fargo Bank, and Atherton Lease in Menlo Park. On May 3, 1986 he and Cathy Zerga were married in Los Altos, CA. They moved to Ceres in 1987 and opened Six Star Factory Outlet in Turlock. Jerry retired in 2002 when they sold the business. He was active in Optimist Club, Eagles, and Exchange Club. Jerry volunteered with the Ceres Police VIPS and the Stanislaus County Sheriff's STARS. He especially enjoyed working with the K-9 Unit. Camping, fishing and boating were his favorite pastimes. Jerry and Cathy enjoyed traveling with friends in their camp trailer. Their 3 dogs joined them on many of these camping trips. Their favorite way to travel was on cruises where they visited beautiful ports around the world. An avid animal lover Jerry took in many stray dogs and pound puppies and gave them a good, loving home. Jerry is survived by his loving wife Cathy and many wonderful extended family members and friends. In his final days he was surrounded by family and friends who prayed with him for a peaceful journey Home. His wife Cathy and his cousin Jodi were by his side at the time of his death. Memorial Services will be held on Sunday June 30th, 11:30 am at Turlock Memorial Park Chapel, 425 North Soderquist Rd Turlock.
