“ If you are lucky in life, every so often you cross paths with a person such as John (Yo as we called him). He could brighten even the gloomiest of days with his humor, big smile, and those fantastic hats. I regret that I only once took him up on his offer to stop by and enjoy a fine whiskey and listen to some of his amazing record album collection on his high fidelity turntable. Each time I was down on the golf range behind his house I would yell up "Yo!" in case he was near his balcony. Often he would walk out and shoot his famous smile at me and say "How ya doin' ?" His spirit and memory will live on in our hearts forever which is some comfort but there will always be a void in my heart that only Yo filled each time I was in his presence. I found this quote that says it best. "Some people come into our lives and quickly go. Some stay for a while, leave footprints on our hearts, and we are never, ever the same." ~ Flavia Weedn. My deepest condolences to his family and friends for their loss.

“ Our dear dear next door neighbor became a close and cherished friend, which I have learned he does with all who he meets! Though he made you feel like his BEST friend!

John was always happy to see us in our front yards pulling in from errands, leaving for school or work and visa versa! His warmth and generosity extended to our children as well. We exchanged many jokes, passed along ingredients, gave him cookies from our daughter for his golf outings (just two per outing :-), shared holidays and more wedding anniversaries with John than our own parents! He gave our son a silk tie and kerchief for his 7th grade formal dance, because he had impeccable style!

John was quick to laugh, invite, and share! He has left a very deep and everlasting impression on our entire family. He will be forever remembered and cherished. We will smile more quickly, laugh more often, and golf with his spirit. How lucky we are to have known him.

To his family and lifetime of friends, we send our deepest condolences to all of you.
