“ Joe Ulrich and his Asst. Manager gave me my first full time job after graduating from SSC in Turlock in 1972. I had worked at the CBGLA in So. Cal. so I had some credit reporting experience. He said I had a "good telephone voice!" That background cinched me getting the job. I learned a lot there, got great promotions and am thankful for him taking a chance on a new college grad. Met some great co-workers too. His wife, Lois, worked by his side and together they were a real powerhouse. My best to his family.

“ Shared many fond memories growing up with our families. Back packing with horses to go fishing in Yosemite to day trips to do some fishing at Don Pedro and McClure lakes, and many other adventures. (I guess many things centered around fishing :) The good times will always stay with me.
most sincere condolences to the Ulrich Family. Mark Chelgren
