“ I knew Levon when he was Father Levon at St. Vartan’s Church in Oakland. He was a good man and a very kind yet firm spiritual leader.

Two memories I have while serving on the Alter at church:

1) In between sections of the morning service we would circulate from the altar and the preparation room in the back of the church. One day while I was in the back room and he came in and asked “what’s the score of the Raiders game!” I didn’t know until then that he was a football fan!

2) I learned one day... don’t come to church too early. One day I did and apparently someone had not showed up. He told me, ok... you are going to do the service with me. I was shy and didn’t like to speak in front of people. However he was firm in his decision. So, I did the service with him. It actually went very well. It’s is wonderful memory I keep.

Levon also married me in 1980. We are happily married for 44 years. It seems like a dream.

God bless Father Levon and Levon Apelian. He blessed me and my family. For this I am grateful.
