“ I worked with Les in the TID line department for 8 years, apprenticed on his heavy construction crew and learned a lot. He was a good teacher and a good man. I'll never forget his laugh, he knew how to belt out a laugh but when he had something to say he knew how to make it stick. My best Lester story was when I kicked out of a 65 ft pole and while I was falling I could hear Les saying, "whoa partner, whoa". I got a hook back in and didn't go to the ground. All Lester said was, "man I thought you were a goner". I wish the family heartfelt condolences and Les to Rest In Peace.
