“ Our sincere condolences to Lilia’s family and her extended family as she was loved by so many. We would never miss a visit with her when we came in from Chicago to visit. That kitchen of hers was legendary.

My dad, Pete Yonan and Judy Yonan and my husband Hartoon... looked forward to our visits to Hilmar and the magic that lady could produce from her kitchen!

Our heartfelt sympathy to all...

My mom and sister and I would meet for lunch with Lilia and other ladies, these past years. Lilia was the sweetest lady, always talking about her cooking and family, and she always dressed beautifully. Will always have good memories of dear Lilia

“ The Babelle family and her friends (which are many) will truly miss Lilia. I worked with Lilia in the 80's and 90's and she truly was proud of her sons and grandsons and the rest of her family. She was a lovely caring person. Unfortunately cannot her attend her services since I have a doctors appointment at UCDavis with my cardiologist. RIP Lilia Your friend Nina Gonzalez
