“ We will never forget our Mother's face, the sound of her voice, the gentleness of her touch, the stories she told and the traditions she handed down. We will never forget the lessons she taught and the things she stood for. These were her gifts and legacy to her daughters. We love you so much and will see you in that place God has prepared for us.

“ Been a lot of years since I saw Aunt Lillie but I knew her to be a loving person but then she wouldn't be a Crandall if she wasn't. Now in Paradise she is with loved ones that went before. Rest in peace Aunt Lillie.
