

Linda Kaye Huerta

May 19, 1949 - August 26, 2025

Dear Momma,

Our mother, Linda Huerta, was born in Oakland, California on May 19, 1949 to Dell Souza and Jack Clark. She was also lovingly raised by her grandpa, Dennis McClintok, who she now joins in eternal rest, alongside her grandmother, Corbit.

Linda's life was a shining testament to her remarkable strength and resilience as she raised her two children. Her first born, Anthony, with Tony Fuentes; and her second child, Stara, with Jesse Huerta.

Our Momma was more than just a mother; she was a constant source of inspiration, a guiding light of courage who taught us invaluable life lessons and supported us every step of the way. Though we faced challenges and difficulties along the way, we always knew we could count on her unwavering love and support.

Her legacy lives on through her children, grandchildren, and the countless lives she touched, a lasting tribute to her generosity of spirit and her unshakeable optimism. As a loving Nana, she welcomed her grandkids with open arms, sharing stories of our family's history, and teaching us valuable lessons about love, perseverance, and the importance of never giving up. Her laughter was contagious, her spirit unbreakable, and her love, a gift that will continue to inspire and uplift us for generations to come.

Though her physical presence may be gone, her love and spirit will live on in our hearts, guiding us every step of the way. Until we meet again, Momma, your love, lessons, and legacy will continue to shine brightly, inspiring us to live our lives to the fullest and to never forget the incredible impact you had on our lives.

Dear Momma,

Don't ya know we love ya?

Sweet Lady, place no one above ya.

You Are Appreciated.
